

URBAN

DOWNTOWN SAN DIEGO

If you live in San Diego, going downtown is a quick and easy destination, as long as you're not on the freeway from 2 p.m. through 7 p.m. Might I suggest perhaps a hovercraft or jetpack? So, avoid those times but definitely don't avoid enjoying all of what DTSD has to offer. From restaurants to bars and a smattering of top notch hotels to lay your weary head, you can't go wrong visiting Downtown.
