BARLEYMASH

"Beer anyone? Not only do they serve up a ton of beers, their menu items are inspired by beer as well as uses beer for ingredients. For a true beer loving experience, come in and have a drink and a meal. Afterwards, stay because it's the hottest bar in the Gaslamp. This place is always happening."

600 5th Ave., Gaslamp • (619) 255-7373 • Barleymash.com

BARREL REPUBLIC

"Barrel Republic is the Mecca for craft beer lovers to come for freedom: the freedom to pour, freedom to compare, freedom to be amongst other like minded craft beer enthusiasts. Located in the heart of the craft beer Capital of the United States, San Diego, Barrel Republic has 44 craft beers and gives all of its patrons the privilege to pour their own beer."

1261 Garnet Ave., Pacific Beach • (858) 270-9922 • BarrelrePublic.com

COYOTE UGLY

Remember the movie? Hot chicks dancing on the bar while you're chugging beer? Yes, this is that place. They have all the beer you want and they have food too. But the real "kicker" is that you get some eye candy entertainment for your enjoyment.

820 5th Ave., Gaslamp • (619) 308-8459 • CoyoteUglySaloon.com

CRAFT AND COMMERCE

"They actually make beer cocktails. This reason alone should make you want to check it out. When you're ready to go pee pee, be prepared to pee pee your pants because they play a audio loop of their bad Yelp reviews spoken by a serious voice...haha!"

675 W Beech St., Little Italy • (619) 269-2202 • Craft-Commerce.com

DRAFT

"Located directly on the Mission Beach boardwalk, Draft is serving up 69 beers on tap and 30+ bottles pairing the surf and sand with a wide variety of craft beers. But the appeal doesn't stop at the #brewsandviews"

3146 Mission Blvd., Mission Beach

(858) 228-9283 • BelmontPark.com/restaurants/draft

ENCINITAS ALE HOUSE

"Looking for beers from around the world in North County? Look no further. This cozy joint has 32 taps of both international and local beers, and microbrews. They also have fantastic unique burgers so you don't have to move an inch to also get delicious grub."

1044 South Coast Hwy. 101, Encinitas • (760) 943-7180 • EncinitasAlehouse.com

HAMILTON'S TAVERN

"As the mother bar to Small Bar and Monkey Paw, Hamilton's delivers by keeping it classic and old school. It's dimly lit, filled with locals, and with a staff that really knows what they are talking about."

1521 30th St., South Park

(619) 238-5460 • HamiltonsTavern.com

MASTERS

"The new addition to the block blew us away in our restaurant review this month. Their craft cocktail menu is great and so is their beer selection. This is a place that you definitely have to try and if you do, I bet you will try, try, and try them again."

208 S. Coast Hwy., Oceanside

(760) 231-6278 • MastersOceanside.com

NEIGHBORHOOD

"Neighborhood set out to counter the dominance of Crap Beer in the local social, and dining landscape. As a pioneer in the proliferation of San Diego's "gastropub culture", Neighborhood fights the perception of what a beer establishment can and should be - successfully combining quality beer, locally sourced food, and intelligent design."

777 G St., Gaslamp • (619) 446-0002 • NeighborhoodSD.com

OB NOODLE HOUSE

"This place is so good that we did our Beat and Eats feature on it this month. They have an amazing selection of beers with amazing deals."

2218 Cable St., Ocean Beach

(619) 450-6868 • OBNoodleHouse.com

CHURCHILL'S PUB

"One of the original San Diego beer bars that brought craft beers to the public. You can argue that they may have the best beer selection in all of San Diego. If you get a chance to chat with owner/operator Ivan, you will soon find out how refined his beer palate really is and he accepts nothing less for his establishment."

887 West San Marcos Blvd., San Marcos
