What's better than being West Philadelphia born and raised? Partying at the Gaslamp's favorite spot in May. The folks at barleymash can't tell you how to become the prince of Bel Air, but they can do one better this month. They're hosting the ultra famous DJ Jazzy Jeff from 9 p.m. until closing time on May 21 to celebrate aging to perfection in just one short year. This party promises to be one funky fresh celebration.
