How do the ladies feel about #noshaveNovember? Celebrate it! Just ask barleymash's pastry chef Jess DiBona and check out her hipster-friendly, ginger moustache cookie atop the restaurant's cocktail-for-a-cause this month. DiBona did the 'stache cookie to garnish a cocktail concoction called "The Movember Mouth-Brow."

The new cocktail, an ode to the eyebrow above your lips, is made with Bacardi, pear brandy, lemon and Orgeat and served in an old fashion glass. For every cocktail ordered, barley mash donates $1 to prostate cancer research, to which Bacardi will match up to $1000.

About Barleymash San Diego

Barleymash is the downtown place-to-be for locals and tourists alike. Set amidst reclaimed wood from the original foundation and a warm modernist design, the restaurant and bar supports San Diego's brewing community with 30 beers on tap from the city's best micro- and nano-breweries. The garage-door style windows open up the interior space to the Gaslamp's sunny disposition. And, rooted in the idea that we are indeed a community, three large communal tables foster a sense of gathering where deliciously innovative food, conversation and drink can be shared amongst friends and neighbors.
