

Cant-Miss June Events In San Diego

June 9 – David Francisco Performs at Backyard Kitchen & Tap

Head to Backyard Kitchen & Tap on June 9th from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for a special performance by the American Idol contestant and inspirational musician, David Francisco. Paralyzed from the waist down after being hit by a motorist while riding his bike back in 2016, David has miraculously prevailed, and become a musical sensation through his perseverance and undeniable talent. Can't make it on that day? David will be performing again at Union Kitchen & Tap Encinitas on June 14th from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

June 14 – Cocktails and Comedians

If your idea of a good time includes laughing 'til it hurts, join ginger's in the Gaslamp District on Thursday June 14th for Cocktails and Comedians. This event features a hilarious lineup of stand-up comedians including Steve Simeone, a regular at Hollywood's The Comedy Store. Having also appeared on Comedy Central's This Is Not Happening, the evening promises plenty of laughs.

Ginger's, which is located just below barleymash, is a sophisticated cocktail lounge featuring live music and DJs throughout the week, along with and Tuesday karaoke night. Sip on wine, cocktails or martinis like The Dirty Girl, a mix of Skyy Vodka, olive juice and stuffed olives. Food can be ordered from the menu at barleymash, which includes plenty of sharable plate options, salads, flatbreads and iconic burgers.

Cocktails and Comedians is a free show (for the 21 and older crowd) that lasts from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., so plan on arriving early to get a good seat and laugh the night away! Doors open at 7:00 p.m. and there is a two-drink minimum.

June 18 – Paint Night at Mavericks

Mavericks Beach Club is hosting a paint night on Monday, June 18th from 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. Perfect for creatives or those just looking to have a fun, paint-filled evening by the coast! Themes range, with a new design each month. This month, join master artist Carissa Robinson for a step-by-step instruction on how to recreate the Hawaiian floral painting “Ho’ohana.” Guests can enjoy drink and food specials prior to the event by taking advantage of happy hour from 3 – 6 p.m. Use MAVERICKS25 for $25 tickets, which can be purchased here: Painting & Vino Tickets.

June 19 – Crawfish Cookout Eating Contest

Pacific Beach Fish Shop’s is hosting its annual crawfish cookout eating contest on Tuesday, June 19th. Fishmonger’s boil up fresh, live crawfish prior to the competition and toss in all the fixin’s like corn on the cob, potatoes and andouille sausage. The event, which begins in the evening, will consist of 14 participants (seven guys and seven gals) bibbing-up to devour two pounds of the Cajun crustaceans. The first to finish wins a championship crawfish medal, crawfish swag and bragging rights. The spicy Cajun boil will also be on the menu for the crowd to enjoy, while they cheer on the competitors. Fish Shop, which has been a PB staple since opening in 2010, serves the freshest fish and coldest beer in the area.

June 28 - Justin Wine Dinner

Join Fig Tree Café in Liberty Station on June 28th at 6:30 p.m. for their Justin Wine Dinner and savor a five-course meal curated by Executive Chef Jimmy Tessier, accompanied wine pairings by certified sommelier, Michael Simpson. Pricing is $75 per person, which will include Chef's Amuse Bouche and five courses plus wine pairings.

MOVIES IN THE PARK

There is no shortage of fun to be had at Carlsbad's Park 101 in June, with entertainment planned throughout the entire month. This family-friendly (and pet friendly) open-air eatery will be hosting their weekly Movie Night in the Park night, along with a new movie lineup planned for June.

Don't forget to pack blankets and arrive early for Movie Night in the Park, each Wednesday evening. Movies will begin at 8:00 p.m. and complimentary popcorn will be handed out to enjoy.
