LABOR DAY WEEKEND FOOD AND DRINK DEALS

BY CAROLINA GUSMAN

With Labor Day marking the unofficial end of summer, local eateries offer bites and sips to help you wind down the season over the long holiday weekend.

Barleymash kicks off Labor Day weekend with its Wear White Party featuring karaoke at 9 p.m. Sunday downstairs at Ginger's. At 10 p.m. upstairs, listen to tunes with DJ Schoeny while enjoying drink specials all night long. Come back for the White Party brunch from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday and taste classic brunch dishes like homemade brown ale biscuits and gravy with fried eggs and pork sausage links. 600 Fifth Ave., San Diego. (619) 255-7373. barleymash.com

Park 101 will say aloha to summer with a luau starting at 4 p.m. today. There will be tropical drink specials, authentic Hawaiian dishes like sweet chili pineapple wings, tri-tip loco moco sandwich with rice and gravy, and katsu (fried) chicken and Spam-fried rice. At sunset, watch Polynesian dance performances and a fire show. Hawaiian shirts and island attire is encouraged. On Monday, bring the family for some barbecue and cold drinks. Your four-legged companions are welcome, too. 3040 Carlsbad Blvd., Carlsbad. (760) 434-2217. park101carlsbad.com

Miss B's Coconut Club will raise a glass to summer's end with its Labor Day weekend celebration. On Saturday, enjoy specials on barbecue sliders and Juneshine, a San Diego kombucha company, with flavors like Cucumber Mojito, Rosé, Acai Berry, Blood Orange Mint and Midnight Painkiller. On Sunday, join in for an All White Brunch (wear all white attire) with bites and cocktails like the Kale-ribbean Mimosa, made with fresh kale, papaya and mango. 3704 Mission Blvd., San Diego. (619) 255-7373.
