

PLAN
Attractions, adventure
sports and more

EXPLORE
A dozen restaurants
on the water

SEE Inside the city's hippest hoods

PLUS

EXPERIENCE
The symphony's sleek
bayfront shell

SAN DIEGO

Official Spring & Summer 2020 Visitor Guide

MAKE A SPLASH
FROM HISTORY AND MYSTERY TO BEACHES AND BAYS

HIDDEN GEMS
The city's secret side

GET OUTDOORS
Hike, bike, camp, play

JUST RELAX
Sun, sand and spas

San Diego Happiness is calling

San Diego MAGAZINE

WHAT'S INSIDE

Eat

Best Restaurants
page 34

Food Halls
page 36

Mexican Food
page 38

High Steaks
page 40

Vegging Out
page 41

San Diego's restaurant scene is exceptionally diverse. With celebrity-chef-driven cuisine, an abundance of international offerings and tacos in every iteration imaginable, San Diego is a culinary delight for everyone, from visiting vegans and farm-to-table foodies to adventurous eaters and even die-hard carnivores.

▲ Granola bowl made with greek yogurt, acai, berries and toasted almonds from Retreat Pool & Cabanas. Photo by Arlene Ibarra

◆ Eat

Best Restaurants

San Diego's restaurant scene has it all. The city is filled with trendy new spots and seasoned neighborhood favorites, as well as eateries for all types, traditions, occasions and price points. To help narrow the field, we've consulted the authority on all things San Diego, San Diego Magazine. Here are their picks for the best of the best.

INDULGENT EATS THE CRACK SHACK

Fried chicken and eggs in almost every form, plus bocce ball and an ultra-Instagrammable chicken statue.
→ crackshack.com
#getcrackshacked

WATCH THE GAME BARLEYMASH

Multiple TVs and a weekend-brunch bloody mary bar.

barleymash.com

@barleymashsd

San Diego Visitors Guide features barleymash

7.1.20